

NRCE organizes Exhibition Stall at National Livestock Championship-2014, Mukatsar (Punjab)

National Research Centre on Equines participated in National Livestock Championship-2014 at Guru Gobind Singh Stadium, Mukatsar, Punjab during 8-12 January, 2014. NRCE exhibition stall was organized in National Livestock Championship – 2014, at Mukatsar which was visited by dignitaries, officials, equine owners and farmers. The NRCE exhibition stall displayed information on different breeds of horses, the utility of equines in different activities, information on different aspects of equine husbandry and management.

Extension literature on equine husbandry was provided to equine owners and information about institute activities and technologies developed at NRCE was given to visiting dignitaries and officials at the NRCE exhibition stall.

Exhibition gallery at National Livestock Championship-2014, Mukatsar

Group of farmers visits NRCE exhibition stall

Enthusiastic young farmers at NRCE exhibition stall

Equine owners having interacting at NRCE exhibition stall

Proud owner with Champion stallion at National Livestock Championship-2014, Mukatsar