

Note on One week Training Programme

A one week training programme on “Artificial Insemination in Equines” was inaugurated at the Equine Production Campus, Bikaner, Rajasthan on 21st Aug 2017. Participants from Rajasthan Haryana and UP will be trained in this programme. Incharge, EPC and Course Director, Dr R A Legha welcomed the participants and appraised about the importance of the training programme and urged participants to be keen in learning the technique of AI in Equines. All the officers and staff of the EPC were present at the inauguration of the training programme. This training programme scheduled from 21st August to 27th August 2017.

