

ICAR-NRCE Celebrated World Veterinary Day on 28th April, 2018

ICAR- National Research Centre on Equines celebrated - 'World Veterinary Day', by organizing a seminar on "Role of Veterinary profession in sustainable development to improve the livelihood, food security and safety in collaboration with Dr C.M.Singh endowment Trust, Bareilly. Dr Panjab Singh, Former DG ICAR and Secretary DARE and Chancellor of Rani Lakshmi Bai Central Agriculture University, Jhansi was the Chief Guest on the Occasion, while Dr M.C.Sharma, Former Director IVRI and Professor Dr S.K.Garg Founder Vice Chancellor Deen Dayal Upadhyaya Veterinary and Animal Science University were Guest of Honour. Dr B.N.Tripathi, Director, NRCE welcomed the guests on the day and said that this is the time when the world has to acknowledge what veterinary profession has been doing for the welfare of livestock and for food security of human race.

Dr Panjab Singh, chief guest on the occasion gave the C M Singh memorial lecture on "Indian agriculture challenges and resolves". Dr R.Somvanshi, Secretary Dr C.M.Singh Endowment Trust informed that while World Celebrates World Veterinay Day, we in India celebrate Shalihotra day as the reknowned sage wrote a lot about treatment and management of horses through writing more than 800 salokas.

