

World Veterinary Day Celebrated at ICAR-NRCE, Hisar

World Veterinary Day was celebrated at ICAR-NRCE, Hisar on April 25, 2015. Brigadier B. S. Kashyap, Commandant, Equine Breeding Stud, Hisar was present as the Chief Guest of the programme. On this occasion, students from Thakurdas Bhrgav Sr. Secondary Model School were also present during World Veterinary Day function at NRCE. The World Veterinary Association selected theme “Vector borne diseases with a zoonotic potential” for year 2015 with the idea to educate and raise awareness among public regarding prevention and control of Vector borne zoonotic diseases.

Lighting of lamp by Chief Guest

Director NRCE welcomes Chief Guest

Dr B. N. Tripathi, Director, NRCE welcomed Chief Guest, students and dignitaries and presented overview of World Veterinary Day celebration. In his speech he talked about the interdependence between humans, animals and environment, he emphasized on zoonotic potential of diseases and the importance of good environment and health in preventing vector born diseases.

Director NRCE addressing dignitaries and students

On the occasion of World Veterinary Day, a lecture was given by Dr Virmani, Principal Scientist, NRCE on the topic “Survival with the flu” and Dr B. R. Gulati, Principal Scientist, NRCE on the topic “Vector-borne diseases with zoonotic potential in India”

Lecture by Dr Virmani

Lecture by Dr B. R. Gulati

Chief Guest Brigadier B. S. Kashyap, Commandant Equine Breeding Stud, Hisar in his speech gave brief about veterinary profession and activities of equine breeding stud. He also motivated students for career option in veterinary science. The students visited Info-equine museum at Agricultural Technology Information Centre (ATIC) of the Centre. The students were educated in various aspects of the equines such as evolution of equines, different breeds of equines in world and India and the utility of equines in different activities along with the various field outreach programmes like organization of health camps, kisan goshtis, equine owners meet and participation in animal fairs, exhibition for benefit of equine owners. Dr Yashpal, Principal Scientist gave vote of thanks.

Chief Guest delivering speech on world veterinary day

Students at Info-equine Museum ATIC, NRCE