A two-day training cum exposure visit programme on “Use of equine operated agricultural implements” under the “AICRP on Utilization of Animal Energy” has been organized for the farmers at Equine Production Campus, ICAR-NRC on Equines, Bikaner, Rajasthan from 14-15th January 2020 under the Chairmanship of Dr BN Tripathi, Director, ICAR-NRC on Equines, Hisar, Haryana and coordinated by Dr Yash Pal and Dr RA Legha. A total of 10 farmers from Eta District of Uttar Pradesh and 5 officers from Brook India Pvt. Ltd., took part in this training cum exposure visit programme. The training programme has been inaugurated by Dr RK Sawal, Director, ICAR-NRC on Camel on 14th January 2020. In this training programme, farmers have been imparted more than 10 hours practical training hands on developing, designing and working with equine operated various agricultural implements like different types of plough and seed drillers developed by NRCE under AICRP on UAE project. Farmers showed immense interest in adopting the agricultural implements as well as in vermicomposting and the same have been elaborated by the expert team to the participants.